

2008 Health Care State Rankings

This newly revised, 16th edition of Health Care State Rankings features a compilation of 21 easy-to-understand health care statistics, including teen birth rates, access to doctors, infant mortality, smoking, cancer cases and seat belt use. Over 500 tables of state health care comparisons are featured. Health Care State Rankings 2008. Minnesota is currently ranked as the healthiest state; SC made progress this year, moving from 45th to 44th in the nation. This was the top story on AOL 's Money and Finance page on March 30, 2008

<http://myschospital.org/docs/2008healthieststate.pdf>

<http://money.aol.com/insurance/unhealthiest-states>.